

THE WESTIN WILLIAM PENN
Pittsburgh

Breadbasket Zone Committee Meeting
9/22/90

In attendance: Mike Calwell, Laura Calwell, Leslie Cooper, Kevin Kelly, Marie Kreiper, Leo Letendre, Todd Sauland, Bill Weir

Agenda

I Zone boundary change proposal

II Communication between LMSC's

III Zone championship bid

IV House of Delegate proposals

A) Officials qualifications

B) Limitations in length of championship meets (time standards specifically)

I Discussion of the <sup>Proposed</sup> Zone boundary change, whereas California would be broken into 3 separate zones (proposal is supported by legislative championship committees), led to recognition of the fact that Breadbasket zone increases dramatically in geographic area

Pittsburgh

II Communication between LMSC's -

Note: Add Kevin Kelly to mailing list to receive Zone newsletter

In general, it is felt that the Zone newsletter is effective and shall be mailed at least 3 times, or more as needed, per year.

Suggested input to newsletter:

- meet schedules
- specific training tips
- specific recruiting ideas for teams - ex. excerpts from "Masters Swimming Handbook"
- list of resources for help on how to stimulate participation - especially aimed at "marginal" swimmers

Notes: Mike Calwell volunteered as "National Recruiter" & Information/Idea Coordinator for the purpose of increasing membership throughout the LMSC's. Responsible to Mary Lee Watson, chairman of Marketing committee

III Town championship discussion included possible locations - Omaha was selected based on geographic location and interest in hosting the event - possible dates - March 30, 31 or April 1, 7

IV Discussion on proposal for qualified/certified officials - consensus is lack of support for the proposal

Meeting adjourned at 10:00 am
